Locating a free way to get targeted traffic to a site is essential for the success of any company. Targeted traffic generation can be achieved in a few ways like social bookmarking, blogging, article directories, free classified listings, etc.. There are plenty of ways to market your web-site for free but what we are going to focus on is free online classified advertising

Free classified web-sites are a great source to post content quick and are an outstanding resource of finding targeted web traffic. Besides being simple and quick, it is a splendid way to split-test your campaigns. It is also a cost efficient way to find out what will work before you make a decision to do a cost-per-click campaign.

Another advantage to free classified posting is with each new web site you will find a new audience. People surf these free classified web-sites on a daily basis so the possibility to construct a huge list is there. Besides constructing a list, these consumers are looking for a product or service and are ready to buy. That means half of the work is already done, you just have to convert this targeted _cheap traffic into buying potential.

Free advertising is the greatest online advertising solution for any size of business simply because it does not cost anything. There are millions of surfers on the net looking for products or services and if this resource is not being utilized, it is a complete waste of promising potential.

Free online classified advertising has lost some visibility with some online marketers in the past but is starting to be recognized as a splendid backlink building resource again. It has always been this but somehow got lost in the marketing and advertising scheme of things.

Besides print advertising websites that have begun to use the world wide web, there are other terrific free advertising web-sites that can deliver targeted traffic to your business. These are not local search advertising but world-wide-web advertising. Delivery of your contextual advertising to an intercontinental audience is what makes this style of advertising so valuable. Most of these sites will present free advertising with the option to upgrade for more visibility. The cost is usually a small amount and can be worth every penny.
