each page in your Web site so it gives information on a specific topic. This expands the list of key words through which searchers might find your site.

Other ways to earn revenue from traffic to an information Web site:

Initiate the two step process James Maduk explains in Part 1.

Participate in a few select affiliate programs, which you can promote on topic-specific pages in your Web site.

Join a targeted advertising network such as Google's AdSense.

Sell your own advertising space.

In any case, targeting Web site traffic in the "right" decision making stage creates a win-win situation. Your visitors find the information they need and you profit - through sales, advertising, or affiliate revenue - by meeting those needs.
